FOR MORE INFORMATION

IMPORTANT INFO

MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION: Membership is no longer required to attend YMCA Camp Sloper. All campers are considered program members unless they are Full Members of the Southington-Cheshire Community YMCAs. Full Members are entitled to the discounted rate on camp program fees.

EXTENDED CARE: Extended Camp Care at YMCA Camp Sloper is available for Sloperians and up for an additional cost. AM Care – 6:30 AM until camp start; PM Care – End of camp until 5:30 PM. Extended Care in Cheshire can be arranged through the Cheshire Community YMCA, 203-272-3150.

TRANSPORTATION: Bus service is provided at no additional charge for campers entering kindergarten and up. There is no transportation for Wanderers. All routes are pre-determined, and service Southington, Cheshire, Berlin and Kensington. Bus lists are available at both YMCAs or at ymcacampsloper.org.

MEDICAL FORMS: State regulations require us to have a Medical Form on file BEFORE a camper comes to camp. Physicals must be within 36 months of the child's first day at camp. Forms are available at either YMCA or may be downloaded at ymcacampsloper.org.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE: In keeping with YMCA mission and philosophy, camp scholarships are available for qualifying families in Southington and Cheshire. The financial assistance application is available at ymcacampsloper.org or by calling Sue Cagno at 860-426-9590.

CAMP IMPROVEMENT FEE: A $20.00 Camp Improvement Fee will be charged to each camper at the time of registration to help defray the cost of new 2022 camp improvements. This is a one-time fee per child, per year.
